

NEW BREED OF HUSBAND TAKES NAME OF WIFE

Lucy Stoners Are Gone One Better; Jail Home of "Alimony Club" is Ordered Abolished

BY RAYMOND G. CARROLL
(Copyright, 1923, Public Ledger.)

NEW YORK, June 4.—Going the Lucy Stone League one better now comes the breed of husband who gives the name of his better half carte blanc on the hotel register and tails after. The Lucy Stoners are married women who hang to their maiden names and give their husbands the next line if they should be along and no consideration whatever if not—registering in either case under their maiden names.

Benny Field, dancer, and husband of Blossom Seeley, is the trail blazer of the new class of men who marry women better known than themselves and take their names. Benny came up with his wife in this fashion: "Mr. and Mrs. Blossom Seeley Field." Can you imagine Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Field? "Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Field" is the name of the man who has started something, and he is a number two at that, for the first husband of the new breed was the famous baseball pitcher of the Giants, "Rube" Marquard.

MISSING HUSBAND BACK
Speaking of husbands, one who has been strangely missing for two years has just popped up in the city in Buffalo. He is Maj. Wallace McCutcheon, Broadwayway, World War hero, dancer and formerly married to Pearl White, the screen artist.

Since dropping out of sight and leaving columns of newspaper conjecture to the metropolitan newspapers, McCutcheon has been in the Balkans, in Mexico, and was a participant in a revolution in Peru. He is off the stage for life, he says, and has resumed his pre-war profession of engineer, being now connected with a Niagara Falls power company.

Stripped to action by the Russian invasion of the Broadway theater district, the Irish have decided to enter the bright light belt. The establishment probably in West Fifty-seventh street, near Seventh avenue of a Gaelic art theater to represent an outlay of $200,000 is announced.

PEGGY'S PEARLS
The irrepressible Peggy Hopkins Joyce will return to the stage in a musical summer show, to be called "The Near Future." She is scheduled to wear $100,000 worth of pearls. The show is being produced by arrangements with a bank near the theater to "guarantee" the production, which normally keeps open until 10 p.m. to stick to its night until 11:30 p.m., to enable the depositing of the show's proceeds in a special security deposit box. Private detectives will guard the pearls in their transit from the star's dressing-room to and from the bank.

Ludlow-street Jail, New York's debtor prison, home of the Alimony Club, scheduled for abolishment. It has been a municipal fiasco for some time, as the average number of inmates does not exceed twenty daily. The sharp-tongued of the Comptroller's office have estimated that it is costing the city $15 a day for each inmate in the famous institution. The prisoners, who include those being punished for contempt of court, could be maintained at a Fifth-avenue hotel for less money than is spent on them in Ludlow. The plan is to sell the site of the Ludlow-street Jail and transfer its inmates and other of like offenses to the Tombs or House of Detention, located near the Tombs.

An application has been made for the rental of the Pennsylvania station on its Seventh-street side. The members of the "Polly Preferred Company," a theatrical organization, want it for a summer golf course, with high wiring to keep the long drives from falling into the street below. Dozens of

A trust fund of $4,000,000 is created for the use of Mrs. Guinivere Gould, during her lifetime, and to be divided among her children in the event of her death without a will.

The residuary estate estimated at $1,000,000 is left to the executor to be divided in ten equal parts, a share going to each of the children by both marriages.

Mr. Guinivere Gould and Rice are appointed trustees of the estate, and to be divided among her children in the event of her death without a will.

questions from newspapermen. He added, in reply to other queries, that "under no circumstances will French Line ships call at Halifax for the purpose of discharging or reloading their liquor supply."

To do so, he pointed out, would mean prolonging the crossing two days and the expense and inconvenience to the passengers entitled would be much larger than the benefits to be derived therefrom.

WITH OUT OFFICIAL COPIES
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Although so far without official copies of the new ship liquor regulations issued by the treasury, most of the embassies and legations in Washington, whose merchant vessels would be affected, have cabled their home-governments brief synopses of the contents.

The full text will be forwarded in due course, also, but the time intervening before the regulations take effect is so short that it is believed the foreign chancelleries may decide upon a course of action, at least for the present, on the basis of the synopses.

While there is some talk of the adoption of retaliatory measures, such discussion is not as pronounced as it was a few days ago. The impression is gaining ground here that for the most part foreign shipping companies will make good their word to comply with the American law. If it works too great a hardship on the foreign trade, the companies will make good their word to comply with the American law.

The one outstanding point in the current liquor controversy is of course, the small cost of operation. For the trip to and from West Point, a distance of 150 miles, the expenditure was 60 cents, the price of two gallons of highest or air-grade gasoline, and 10 cents worth of castor oil.

LOADED ALONG
Barbot covered the distance in two hours and ten minutes. He loaded along the air lanes, swinging in large circles over the city and towns he passed on the way.

The airplane that accompanied Barbot's performance was of course, the small cost of operation. For the trip to and from West Point, a distance of 150 miles, the expenditure was 60 cents, the price of two gallons of highest or air-grade gasoline, and 10 cents worth of castor oil.

ATTITUDE OF BRITISH
There is almost certain to be the attitude of the British shipping interests as it is understood here. They are not in the dilemma of the French, Spanish and Italian shipmasters who find themselves obliged to select which law they shall break—their own, which requires wine rations for crews, or the American law which prohibits them.

It has been suggested that the European legal system is sufficiently elastic to admit of a special dispensation by governmental decree to relieve shipmasters from the obligations of their municipal law when they are in the waters of the American executive to relax the operations of the Volstead act.

It appears to be the opinion among diplomatic representatives here that they have done all possible for the moment. They are not in the dilemma of the French, Spanish and Italian shipmasters who find themselves obliged to select which law they shall break—their own, which requires wine rations for crews, or the American law which prohibits them.

DID NOT LAND
Therefore the young Frenchman, looking down from an altitude of 1800 feet over West Point, decided that the parade grounds there, cleared space of 1000 feet, surrounded by trees, was too difficult and that he would fly around and return to his home.

"I have disappointed the authorities at West Point three times," he said. "I am very sorry. I tried to land there, but it would have been dangerous. I am sure they will take the small flying plane in the clouds and forgive my inability."

Other airplanes have landed on the parade grounds at West Point, but they have had great climbing power and have not required the landing space needed by the Devolet craft.

CHICAGO WELTERS IN TORRID CLIMATE; THREE PROSTRATED; COOLER WEATHER PREDICTED

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

NEW YORK, June 4.—Four persons were overcome by the heat in Brooklyn today. All were treated by ambulance surgeons and taken home.

CHICAGO, June 4.—Although cooler weather was in sight, three persons were overcome by the heat here today, and there were numerous reports of near-heat prostration. Two of those overcome were women. All three fell in the streets. They were revived and taken home in police ambulances.

Cooler weather is scheduled to arrive in Chicago some time during the night.

According to the weather man in the Federal Building, the hot wave is about to wane. Until the local weather prophet's predictions come true, however, Chicago, down to its last man, woman and child, is hunting heat-dissipating diversions. The parks and boulevards resemble a garden of Eden in embryo, for coats are an almost forgotten commodity and rolled sleeves and turned-in collars are the order of the day.

AIR FLIVVER SHOWS FAULTS

Flies at Low Cost But Requires Large Landing Field in New York Flight

(BY MORROW KILM
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

NEW YORK, June 4.—The virtues and limitations of the Devolet flying flivver as a vehicle for cross-country transportation were fully demonstrated today by Georges Barbot, the young French pilot, who has brought the small aircraft to America. Barbot flew from Roosevelt Field, Long Island, to West Point, New York and return.

The one outstanding point in the current liquor controversy is of course, the small cost of operation. For the trip to and from West Point, a distance of 150 miles, the expenditure was 60 cents, the price of two gallons of highest or air-grade gasoline, and 10 cents worth of castor oil.

FOREIGN TONGUE SCHOOL LAW HIT

Acts Prohibiting Teaching of Languages Held Void

High Court Sees Fourteenth Amendment Affected

Oregon Measure is Believed to be Nullified

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

WASHINGTON, June 4.—State statutes which would prohibit the teaching or use of foreign languages in schools below the eighth grade were declared void by the Supreme Court today as an unlawful encroachment upon the rights conferred by the Fourteenth Amendment.

Justice Holmes delivered a dissenting opinion in which Justice Sutherland joined.

The question was presented in cases coming from Iowa, Nebraska and Ohio. Eighteen other States, with similar statutes, participated.

Justice McKenna, who delivered the majority opinion, asserted that the Fourteenth Amendment without doubt "denotes not merely freedom from bodily restraint, but also the right of the individual to contract, to engage in any of the common occupations of life, to acquire useful knowledge, to marry, establish a home, and to bring up children, to worship God, according to the dictates of his own conscience, and generally to enjoy privileges long recognized by common law as essential to the orderly pursuits of happiness by freemen."

CANT INTERFERE
This liberty, the court added, cannot be interfered with under the guise of protecting the public interest by legislative action which is arbitrary or without reasonable relation to some purpose within the competency of the State affected.

Final determination of what constitutes proper exercise of police power is within the courts. Justice McKenna asserted, and does not rest with State Legislatures.

While the American people, the court pointed out, have always regarded education and acquisition of knowledge as matters of supreme importance which should be left to the individual and while it is the right and natural duty of the parent to give his children education suitable to their station in life, many States have attempted to enforce the obligation by compulsory laws.

"That the State," Justice McKenna declared, "may do much to improve the quality of its citizens, physically, mentally and morally, is a fact which the individual has certain fundamental rights, which must be respected."

CALIFORNIA NOT AFFECTED?

SACRAMENTO, June 4.—The California statutes relative to foreign language schools will not be affected by the Supreme Court decision today, in the opinion of Attorney General J. W. Wood. They merely provide for regulation.

BELIEVE OREGON LAW HIT
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

PORTLAND (Or.) June 4.—The decision of the Supreme Court today, in holding unconstitutional State laws forbidding the use of foreign languages in schools, was interpreted by the Oregon State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The Oregon law provides that no foreign language may be used while teaching, except in instruction having to do with the study of foreign languages. In other words, the German language, according to Oregon, could be used in teaching German, but not in teaching mathematics, it was explained.

Purdue Sport Chief Would Close Doors Fifteen Cent Soda Decreed in Windy City

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

CHICAGO, June 4.—Western Conference schools only should be permitted to compete in the annual "Big Ten" outdoor track and field meet, in the opinion of Nelson A. Kellogg, director of athletics at Purdue University and chairman of the Western Conference. The fact that numerous athletic organizations not in existence when the Big Ten track meet was formed now have track meets of their own given as one reason by Mr. Kellogg to confine the event to the Big Ten schools.

"Harring nonconference schools from the Big Ten meeting would be an aid to the national intercollegiate meet," director Kellogg said. "Many schools feel that they cannot enter both, so that if they were not permitted to engage in the conference event they would be almost certain to enter the national meet."

TUCSON ELKS PLAN TO ERECT NEW HOME

Supreme Court Ruling Made in Madera Case

Decision Opens Way for Similar Suits

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

WASHINGTON, June 4.—California's Workmen's Compensation Act of 1917, which provides for compensation to nonresident alien dependents as well as residents and aliens, was upheld by the Supreme Court today in a decision brought by the Madera Pine Company.

The case involved the compensation of a worker for the Madera Pine Company, who was injured while in its employ. The company argued that the worker was not a resident of California and therefore was not entitled to compensation under the state law.

The Supreme Court, however, held that the law applied to nonresidents as well as residents, and that the worker was entitled to compensation. The decision opens the way for similar suits in other cases.

Pioneers and Mechanics to Resume Ancient Prep Baseball Feud

L. A. AND POLY NINES TANGLE

Los Angeles Doped to Grab Horsehide Go

Housh Field Place Selected for Battle

Grudge Meet Drives Enormous Attendance

Tuesday will see two old prep school rivals meet once more in a struggle to the death baseball game. L. A. High and Poly have met more times in diamond battles than any other city schools and the interest and feeling increase with every game.

TOUGH AFFAIR
Tuesday's game, however, will be more than a mere rivalry. It is the outcome of the contest depends the championship of the city leagues, that is with a few provisions. The dope sheets have it that L. A. will best Poly, but there is a possibility that Poly may do the trick. If L. A. does beat Poly and if Lincoln beats Jefferson in their league game then L. A. cops the championship. If Jefferson wins then it will result that will have to be played off later. Either way it is settled the champions will not play in the Southern California championships as some sportsman-like contest.

AT HOUSE FIELD
L. A. High will be the scene of the struggle this year and as the championship game on this contest record-breaking crowd will be on hand. When held at Washington Park 16,000 people is the usual attendance and in the limited quarters of the high school it is a problem that E. W. Oliver, vice-principal of L. A., has to face.

ILLINOIS PROTESTS CONFERENCE MEET

CHICAGO, June 4.—Harry Mill, coach of the University of Illinois track team, which lost the western conference championship to Michigan by a point at Ann Arbor Saturday, today mailed a protest to Macey S. Good, president of the Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association. While Mill refused to divulge the contents of the protest, it is presumed it was based on the action of Charles Dean, referee of the meet, in calling off the hurdle race, won by Johnson of Illinois, after it had been discovered the hurdles had been misplaced and were out of alignment during the race. Hubbard, the Michigan star, struck the misplaced hurdles and was thrown off his stride so badly he was only able to win fifth place.

ENGLAND WILL WIN, SAYS BILL

Spain and Britain to Cross Tennis Rackets

John Bull's Team Not Made Up at Present

Lycett and Woosman Sure of Places on Squad

BY WILLIAM TILDEN (World's Champion Tennis Player, 1920-21)

PHILADELPHIA, June 4.—The feature match of the second round of the European zone of the Davis Cup competition will bring the tennis stars of Spain against the leading racket wielders of England. Much depends on this match.

The English team has not yet been definitely settled, although Randolph Lycett and Max Woosman look certain. Spain has nominated Count de Gomar and Edward Flaquear as their two regulars. These are the men who must be considered from the point of ultimate victory, although England may add Col. A. R. F. Kingcoote and Gordon Lowe, or some other veteran at the last moment.

PLAY TIE IN SPAIN

The tie will be played in Spain. If present negotiations are carried through, as the Warren G. Harding trophy, emblematic of the American public links championship, J. D. Standish, Jr., chairman of the public links committee of the United States Golf Association, announced today.

The cup will be placed in competition Monday, June 25, the day preceding the qualifying rounds of the 1923 national public links championship at Washington. Teams of four players, each team representative of a city, will compete at medal play over eighteen holes. The trophy is to be in competition annually.

DOUBLES A TOSS-UP

As the line-up on wetlands, I think that Kingcoote and Lycett will both defeat Flaquear. If Lowe or Woosman substitutes for either, then Flaquear may pull out a match. De Gomar at his best has an outside chance to beat Kingcoote and will probably win from Lycett or Lowe. The doubles is a toss-up, with neither team very strong. Kingcoote and Lycett should win together, but either paired with Lowe or Woosman, neither of whom is a good doubles player, would face a serious task to beat Gomar and Flaquear.

NEAR CRUCIAL SERIES

We are nearing the crucial series of matches. The semifinal of France against Argentina may find a harder contest than one expects. The winner of this will face a hard nut to crack in either England or Spain. The ultimate victor of this meeting must journey to America to play the winner of the American zone, which I believe will be Japan, with Australia as a possibility. Then comes the big battle, when the challenger will face the American defenders at Forest Hills.

YOUNG BLOOD DOES WORK

McGraw Believes Injection of Youth Into National League Causes Increase in Batting

(Copyright Christy Walsh Syndicate) BY JOHN J. MCGRAW (Manager World's Champion Giants) (EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

CHICAGO, June 4.—Just as the second big shift comes—the National League activities moving to the West while the American League fights in the East—a very significant fact has been disclosed by the official records. Something like seventy batters in the National League are hitting .300, while in the American League less than forty are in that class. Why is that? All over the country baseball writers are discussing the subject. Dozens of friends have come to me for an explanation. I think I have it.

To me it means that young blood has been injected into the National League while the American is still hanging on to the veterans. Just a few years ago the opposite was true. In other words a number of young hitters have suddenly developed in the old league. With the exception of the Athletics the good hitters in the American League are mostly veterans. To my mind it is this youthful spirit, this new ambition, that is making Connie Mack's team a sensation.

PITCHING WEAKER
Some have attempted to argue that the surplus of .300 hitters in the National League is due to bad pitching. This, however, is not true. In fact I believe the pitching with the exception, perhaps, of the Yankees and some of the Athletics, is weaker in the American League. Just look over the list and notice the number of comparatively new strong batters who have bobbed up in the National. For instance, Frisch, Bigbee, Hollocher, Grimm, Bottomley and so on. You could easily name a dozen.

In the American the heavy hitters are still men like Cobb, Speaker, Heilmann, Ruth. The answer I think is youth. At last the National League has turned the tables—it always works around in five or six-year periods. The young league has the old blood while the old league has the new.

CHALLENGER IS SET FOR GRIND

Dempsey-Gibbons bout here on July 4 was sent today to the Prince of Wales through the British Embassy by the Shelby Chamber of Commerce.

Construction of the wood bowl which Dempsey will defend his title is now 50 per cent completed. Today plans were made for grading ground for a 150-acre automobile park where thousands of automobile visitors to the bowl may leave their cars which will be watched by armed guards.

JACK RESUMES GRIND

GREAT FALLS (Mont.) June 4.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, resumed his training grind today at Great Falls Park after a week's layoff, the greater part of which was spent fishing trout streams of the Rocky Mountains. Dempsey appears rugged and has gained nearly ten pounds during his layoff. He says he is in "top-notch" condition, with need for only the last two weeks in heavy training to put him in shape for his bout with Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul, in Shelby, July 4.

It was a cold drizzly morning at the camp but the outdoor run of eight miles was made by Dempsey and his sparring partner. This was followed by shadow boxing, bag punching and a little rope skipping. There was no boxing and there will be none tomorrow. Light workouts will be taken for the week and it will not be until next week that the heavy boxing will be resumed, so confident is the champion of his condition. The flesh gained last week will not be worked off in a hurry.

BUSY DAILY SEEMS TO BE BUSIER DAILY

Joe Daily, the professional at the Los Angeles Tennis Club, who was playing tennis in San Francisco when Coast Island tennis has been busy for the past two weeks boxing Joe Niderie, who is repainting the grandstands in preparation for the coming month of William Tilden II and "Sandy" Weinert. Daily also puts in many hours each week training Nat Browne, president of the Southern California Tennis Association, who may pair with Harvey Snodgrass in the Pacific Coast sectional doubles tournament here July 1, 2, 3 and 4.

CALIFORNIA BEGINS WORK ON TOURNAMENT

The California Country Club has begun active preparation for its annual invitational golf tournament, to be held June 14 to 17. The course at present is in good shape, and with a little smoothing over of the rough spots every thing will be set.

What care do clubs require?

LAURIE ATTON

Always a constant place winner in the big tournaments—National Open, Metropolitan Open, Western Open, and sectional tournaments. Patented for his accuracy and steadiness under fire.

After playing, it is a good practice to wipe the clubs free of any moisture which might cause them to warp. The shafts should be lightly oiled every week or so. Any fraying of the grip or binding threads should be tended to immediately by an expert. The best way to keep the clubs when not in use is to place them across a rack as shown above.

United States Naval Academy will not hold spring football practice. Many of the candidates are busy in rowing, baseball and varied sporting activities.

Avoid Motor Oils

containing paraffin, asphalt or any other lubricating substance. Aristol is the most advanced process, designed to remove everything in the crank which has no lubricating value.

ARISTO MOTOR OIL

A "Gritty" Carbon

—that Scores Cylinders and Rings

There's a softer, fluffier kind

Some carbonaceous residue is deposited by all motor oils. Every manufacturer of motor oil knows that.

But there are two kinds of "carbon." One is hard, flint-like and gritty. It clings to pistons, cylinders, valves and rings.

Cylinders can be scored by it. And chisels or acetylene torches are required to remove it.

Causes "Knocking"

Being hard and gritty, it acts as an abrasive, causing pistons, cylinders and rings to wear.

Small pieces become incandescent, causing pre-ignition so the motor "knocks."

Spark plugs become coated. So the spark is short circuited and your motor misses.

Particles attach to valve heads and seats, preventing proper seating and resulting in loss of compression and weak power. And this "carbon" of flint-like hardness collects in quantities two to three times as great as the other kind.

Can Not Wear

The small residue which Aristol Motor Oil deposits is of a different kind. It is soft and fluffy. Most of it blows out with the exhaust. What is left is softer than the metal of cylinders, pistons and rings so cannot score or wear them.

Motors so lubricated run thousands of miles farther without the necessity of cleaning.

Your motor retains tight compression and power, and you save repairs.

Aristol is made by the lubrication department of the Union Oil Company, equipped with the most advanced facility for producing perfect motor oil. A durable, fine film penetrates to and coats each working part in any weather and under any motor heat. Tested by famous drivers under conditions far more severe than any you will ever cause your motor to encounter.

If you would operate a smoother, well-protected, longer-lasting motor, always use Aristol. For sale at all first-class garage and service stations.

Williams Knocks Out Twentieth Homer of Season
Turf Victory Kills Jockey
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
NEW YORK, June 4.—As his mount, Sweet Kiss, crossed the finish line, an easy winner in the steeplechase at Belmont Park today, Rider P. Hayes dropped dead. It was Hayes's first victory in an official event. He was 35 years old. Heart trouble, induced by weight reduction, was said to have caused his collapse.

Brooklyn Defeats Pirates in Opening Game
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
CINCINNATI, June 4.—The Cubs overcame a three-run lead by hitting Rixey and Couch for six straight hits in the ninth inning today and took the last game of the series, 8 to 7. Kaufman was hit freely in the early innings. Alexander went in as relief pitcher in the last half of the ninth and allowed for the Cubs by a fine catch of Burns's line drive. The Reds held brilliantly. Cavaney at shortstop featuring.

Mr. McNeer suffered a broken leg, fractured knee and bruises and his wife was painfully bruised. Both will recover, it was stated. Walter Nevins, 19 years of age, 1547 East Forty-seventh street, asserted to have been the driver of the machine, was arrested by Hollywood police on a charge of reckless driving.

HORSE RACING TO BE REVIVED

Sport of Kings Picking Up in California

Association Forms Plans for Circuit Dates

Season Will be Opened at San Jose August 11

Horse racing throughout California will experience a revival this fall, which indicates that the sport of kings will again take its place among sporting events of the Pacific Coast second only to the period when betting rings accompanied the racing game.

Representatives of the Western Fair Association of California met last night at the Clark Hotel and completed plans for the circuit dates. W. W. Van Pelt, president of the association, appointed a committee with W. L. Douglas of Stockton as chairman. Other members include Mr. Van Pelt, Riverside; Charles W. Paine, Sacramento; Frank C. Russell, Hanford; J. R. Wilson, San Jose; W. G. Wilde, Ventura, and George W. Cobb, Pomona.

OPENS AUGUST 11

The racing season opens at San Jose, August 11 to 13; Stockton, August 23 to 25; Sacramento, September 1 to 3; Hanford, September 17 to 19; Ventura, October 3 to 5; Riverside, October 9 to 11, and Pomona, October 13 to 15.

It is announced that $45,000 in racing premiums will be offered throughout the circuit. Frank Lingner has been appointed to arrange the racing programs.

It is declared that more horses are in training in California than in many years, especially for harness racing, while there is a decided improvement in the racing-race activity.

CIRCULATION OF THE BLOOD IS DISCUSSED BY SEVERNS

Article XL
BY BARCLAY L. SEVERNS

We all know the importance of the circulation of blood; but do we realize the importance of what is carried through that circulatory stream? Do we realize what it is intended for (or its function)? Let us analyze it from a few of the many angles. First, it is for the purpose of carrying the material necessary to rebuild the tissue cells in every part of the body. To carry the exact quantity and quality to each particular part, which needs, and must have its particular kind and quantity; no more, no less; if it is to maintain health. Where does this material come from? The food we eat. Do we always consider the kind of food we eat? Do we stop to inquire as to whether the food we are eating is correct in quality and combination, or really food? Or just a substitute. We do know that there are a great many articles sold for food that have no food value and yet because they have a flavor that suits our taste we eat them, and contaminate the blood stream and starve the tissue cells. It is surprising, then, that we have headaches, as well as other ailments.

EVEN TEMPER

One should learn to keep an evenly balanced temper as well as an evenly balanced meal; the effect of the best meal one could eat would be lost if put into an angry stomach. Then we learn from the above that to maintain the health of our circulatory system, it is necessary to eat the proper food in order to supply the best of building material, to breathe that we may supply the proper amount of oxygen, and to exercise that the circulation may be increased at times; this means the strengthening of the muscles, and last but not least, the elimination of poison in due and proper manner.

The same stream that carries the material for building purposes, in return carries off the waste products to be eliminated through the proper channels, preventing high blood pressure, headaches, stomach trouble, constipation, colds, that tired feeling and many petty ailments common to mankind, that would be unknown, as you would be aiding Mother Nature in carrying out her laws, which, when broken, in some way, some time; you must pay the penalty, and, in most cases, at a time in life when one least expects it and when health is needed the most.

Eighteen Possible Starters May be in Field

All Roads of Merry Albion Lead to Epsom

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LONDON, June 4.—Great Britain's greatest sporting event—half horse race and half picnic—will occur Wednesday, when all roads will lead to Epsom Downs for the running of the one hundred and forty-third race for the derby stakes.

There are eighteen possible starters, Town Guard, owned by Lord Woolavington, whose Captain Cuttle was the winner last year, was a strong favorite until last Thursday, when the rumors which almost inevitably follow the career of the favorite on the eve of the race, began to circulate. It was said that the horse hurt itself in a practice gallop, and on Friday Town Guard was supplanted in the betting by Pharoa, owned by Lord Derby, whose ancestor founded the race in 1879.

That Town Guard met a mishap is unquestioned, but its exact nature is unknown. Betting was never more active and the sweepstakes seem more numerous than ever. The largest amount for distribution is to be nearly $100,000 in the sweepstakes organized at Epsom, Yorkshire.

HUTT MARTIN PICKED TO WIN TOURNAMENT

Hutt Martin, mentor of Bullock's golf shop, has been picked by several prominent followers of the game of golf to win the national open tournament, to be held in the near future at Long Island. Martin has had a deal of such tournament play, and has been one of the most prominent golfers in the country.

There is some doubt, however, if Hutt will make the trip, for he is not subject to the wanderlust and may not care to compete for the honor. If he does go, it is a safe bet that he will give all comers a hard run for their money.

JOHN SUTTER, a Swiss adventurer, explorer and pioneer brought a party of 20 people from the Sandwich Islands in 1839 and obtained from the government of Spain a grant of land in the Sacramento Valley for colonization purposes.

The government, considering Sutter friendly and progressive, gave him almost unlimited power. Having located his fort for the protection of his colony on the Sacramento River, he was in a position to extend help and hospitality and build up a fortune. All travel north and south and all emigration from the west touched at this point.

Sutter's Fort is still standing in the city of Sacramento—the capital city of the state—where one of the important branches of the Bank of Italy is located—and where the great historic celebration, "Days of '49" was held last year.

LINSEED TRADE PLANS ARE HIT

Supreme Court Bans Price
Exchange Program

Bureau Association Attacked
as Illegal

Jurists Hold Sherman Act is Applicable

BY GRAFTON WILCOX
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, June 4. — Reversing a decision of Judge Carpenter in the Federal Court of the Northern District of Illinois, the Supreme Court of the United States today in an important decision affecting practices of "open price" associations, held that the exchange of price and other information by linseed-oil manufacturers through the Armstrong Bureau of Related Industries of Chicago is in violation of the antitrust laws. The decision was the first from the Supreme Court affecting activities of trade associations since that in the hardware "union" case, in which the hardware manufacturers were held to be operating in violation of the Sherman Act by suppressing competition.

COUNSEL'S STATEMENT
Counsel for the linseed-oil manufacturers have maintained that their operations were not so broad as those of the hardware lumber manufacturers, who were accused of seeking to limit production and boost price. The government insisted that the rule laid down in the hardware case was applicable to the linseed case. In this contention the government was upheld by the Supreme Court.

The court's decision is regarded here as sufficiently sweeping to cause all trade associations which have continued to disseminate price information among their members to cease doing so. The so-called "open price" associations were a development of war-time conditions.

The Federal Trade Commission took the lead in attacking their activities and turned over to the Department of Justice evidence of asserted violations of antitrust laws by organizations in a considerable number of industries.

STATISTICAL NEED
Many of these have already discontinued operation as a result of the government prosecutions. Government officials, however, have recognized a need for more complete statistics relative to production, consumption and prices of major commodities and the Department of Commerce has endeavored to expand its statistical service as far as it could do so along this line without running counter to the law.

The case decided today affected the American Linseed Oil Company and eleven other corporations commonly referred to as "crushers," which manufacture, sell and distribute linseed oil, cake and meal. Julian Armstrong, who operates at Chicago under the name of the Armstrong Bureau of Related Industries, also was a defendant. The Armstrong bureau is a so-called "exchange" through which one subscribing manufacturer may obtain detailed information concerning the affairs of others doing like business, the linseed crushers being one of a number of groups contracting for the service.

OLYMPIA (Wash.) June 4. — Washington State has title to 3231 square miles of land and with the 440 square miles to be received from the national forests in the immediate future this area will be increased to 3671 square miles or more than the total combined areas of the States of Delaware and Rhode Island, according to revised figures issued today by State Land Commissioner Clark V. Savidge.

The State Land Department voluntarily waived any claim to the poultry and it was sold for $75 for other purposes than food. Investigation showed it had been stored in New York City, in Buffalo and in Wisconsin before reaching Seattle.

TRAVELING ORIENTAL POULTRY CONDEMNED

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
OLYMPIA (Wash.) June 4. — More than fifteen tons of Chinese poultry shipped to San Francisco in 1922 and since that time traveling across the country and back again have been condemned by the pure food division of the State Department of Agriculture, according to information from Seattle, where the poultry was discovered. Owners of the cold-storage plant voluntarily waived any claim to the poultry and it was sold for $75 for other purposes than food. Investigation showed it had been stored in New York City, in Buffalo and in Wisconsin before reaching Seattle.

After investigating the condition of twenty-four Italians detained at Matamoros, opposite Brownsville, he left for Mexico City today, accompanied by an attaché of his country's Embassy at the Mexican capital.

Vinci said he would visit Juarez and Mexico.

The Economical Roofing

A building may be ever so cheaply constructed—or it may be ever so costly—but if the roofing material used is inferior, there is bound to be grief ahead.

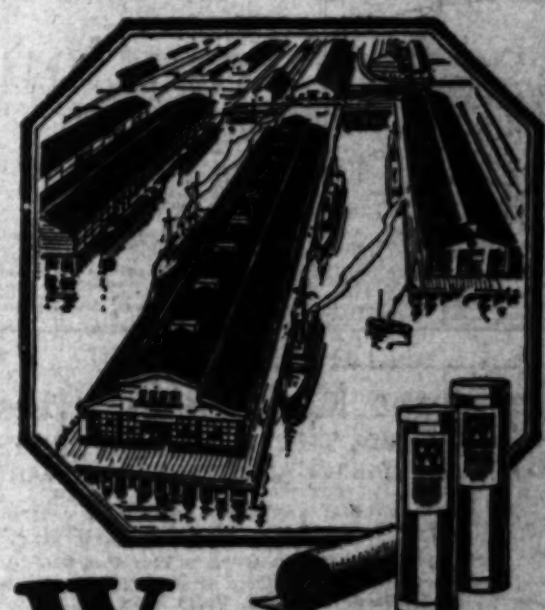

The cost of even the very highest grade "Weaver" Roofing is so slightly more than the cost of the very cheapest types of ordinary roofing that its use is advisable whether the building is of cheap or of expensive construction.

The processing of "Weaver" Roofing is so thorough that it will stand up for many years under the severest tests of extreme weather conditions.

And throughout its life it is free from the need of upkeep or repairs.

UNIVERSITY ACT
TEST DISMISSED
Court Refuses to Test on Legality Woman Has
No Right to Sue

Supreme Court refused today to pass on the constitutionality of the Sheppard-Towner Maternity Act in cases brought by the State of Massachusetts and a Boston taxpayer. Both suits were dismissed for want of jurisdiction.
Unanimously the court held that an attack on the validity of the statute by a State did not present a judicial question. As to the suit instituted by Mrs. Harriet A. Frothingham, the court declared her status as a taxpayer did not entitle her to challenge the law.

OPINION BY SUTHERLAND
Discussing questions of jurisdiction raised by the Massachusetts case, the court's opinion, delivered by Justice Sutherland, declared that "looking through forms of words to the substance of their complaint, it is merely that officials

BEST SERVICE ON ELECTION

"Times" to Give Returns by Phone, Radio and Stereopticon

In accordance with its custom, The Times will present an up-to-the-minute election service for the benefit of the public this evening.
The latest returns will be made known by radio from KHI, the great Times broadcasting station, by stereopticon at First and Broadway, by telephone to all who call
The Times and by street editions of The Times to be issued at intervals.

As rapidly as they can be gathered, expert tabulators will assemble group returns on the various election issues and the actual results,
as well as individual returns, will be made known at the earliest possible moment.

government are executing and will execute an act of Congress asserted to be unconstitutional; this we are asked to prevent.

"To do so," it was added, "would be not to decide a judicial controversy, but to assume a position of authority over the governmental acts of another and co-equal department, an authority which we plainly do not possess."

Massachusetts attacked the law on various grounds in the interests of its citizens. The court asserted, however, that the citizens of Massachusetts are also citizens of the United States and that "it cannot be contended that a State may institute judicial proceedings to protect citizens of the United States from the operation of the statutes thereof."

POINT NEVER PASSED ON

In reference to the suit of Mrs.
Frothingham, which was instituted in the District of Columbia courts, Justice Sutherland said that the right of a taxpayer to enjoin the execution of a Federal appropriation act on the ground that it is unlawful will result in taxation for illegal purposes has never been passed upon by this court.

The administration of a law likely to impose taxation upon a number of taxpayers, the court declared, is essentially a matter of public and not of individual concern. If one taxpayer could champion and litigate such a case then every taxpayer could do so, it was pointed out.

MARRIES IN SPITE OF PARENTAL BAN

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.)

COLUMBUS (Ind.) June 4.— William E. Doeller, formerly of this city, and Miss Katherine Louise Littauer of New York were married Saturday in Philadelphia, according to a telegram received by Doeller's mother, Mrs. Hattie Doeller.

William A. Littauer, the girl's father, filed suit in Paris last January to prevent his daughter from marrying Doeller, to whom the Littauer family is said to have objected. Later the suit was withdrawn, it being understood that Miss Littauer had promised not to marry for several months.

MAY ISSUE BONDS

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—The State Railroad Commission today granted the Western States Gas and Electric Company permission to issue $2,500,000 in 6 per cent bonds to pay in part for the Eldorado power project, which has gone $2,787,564 over the estimate, according to the company.

FIGHT TAX EVASION CHARGE

Revenue Collector Begins Proceedings to Collect Levy
on Bouts Billed as Benefits

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

CHICAGO, June 4.—Charges that the government has been illegally deprived of thousands of dollars in taxes on recent boxing bouts that have taken place here under the guise of "benefits" for charity, today caused Mrs. George Reinecke, internal revenue collector, to begin proceedings to collect the money.

Benny Leonard, lightweight champion; James C. Mulvan and Joe Coffey, promoters; officials of various charitable institutions and prominent society matrons, including Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank and Mrs. J. Ogden Armour, whose names are said to have been used without their permission in promoting some of the bouts, may be called to testify at the hearings, it is said.

The bout that started the investigation to determine who gets the proceeds of the fights shows was the one last week at the Dexter Park Pavilion, between Leonard and Pinkie Mitchell, which ended in a riot when Pinkie's brother, Richie, climbed into the ring in the tenth round and bit the referee. That blow brought an end to the resurrection of boxing here, Mayor Dever having since ruled no more fights can be conducted.

The Leonard-Mitchell bout was billed as a benefit for the West Side Boys' Club. Investigation has shown, Mrs. Reinecke said today, that it was little more than a con-fit for the boxers and the prome-ters. The books show the battle drew about $15,000, of which the club received it is said, just 125.

Leonard, according to reports received $40,000, the remainder going to Mitchell, Mulvan and others.

"We have learned that the West Side Club is nothing more than a political organization the name of which was used to give a charity aspect to boxing shows," Mrs.
Reinecke said.

JURY FIXER SUSPECT IS SENTENCED

Illinois Official Gets Six Months for Refusing to Answer Questions

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

WAUKEGAN (Ill.) June 4.—
Ben Newmark, Assistant State Fire Marshal and one of the accused fixers of the jury that acquitted
Gov. Small, today was sentenced to six months in jail and a fine of $100 on a contempt of court charge for refusal to answer questions before the Lake county grand jury as to what part he may have played in the asserted fixing.

The sentence, imposed by Judge
R. K. Welch, sitting in Circuit Court here, was similar to that given recently to "Umbrella Mike" Boyle, Chicago union labor leader, for a like offense. Newmark was immediately released on $2000 bonds furnished by a surety company.

"Big Dave" Earsman, friend of the asserted fixers, was accused of contempt on the same grounds, and Judge Welch gave his lawyers one week in which to show cause why Earsman should not be punished.

BOND QUOTATIONS

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, June 4.—Foreign bonds moderate. Improvement in today's dull dealings on the New York Stock Exchange but changes in the rest of the list were decidedly irregular. United States government bonds moved within a radius of 1-8 point. Liberty 3 1/2's and first 4's making the best showing.

Bordeaux 5's, Paris-Lyon-Mediterranean 5's, Serbian 5's and Brazilian 7's and 8's each closed about a point higher. In the railroad list New Haven 7's climbed a point despite the heaviness of French exchange. Louisville and Nashville refunding 5 1/2's dropped nearly 1-2, other active issues showing only fractional changes on the day.

Montana Power 5's, up 1-8, led the advance in the active industrial and sugar company bonds. Colorado Industrial 5's were heavy.

Announcement was made today that the $2,000,000 Iowa sold on a syndicate headed by Estabrook and Company. There were several small offerings.

Total sales (par value) were $7,469,000.

Vote For Me, Today!

Take time, some time today, to cast a ballot for the childhood of Los Angeles.

When Los Angeles electors go to the polls today to cast their ballots for members of the Board of Education, they will register a decision in which there is but one fundamental consideration—the childhood of this community. All other factors are secondary. In view of the critical situation confronting our schools there can be no legitimate excuse for failure of the great majority of voters to safeguard education in Los Angeles by voting for seven qualified Board of Education candidates. Los Angeles citizens may feel assured if, for any reason, a representative vote is not cast, opportunity for the election of less desirable candidates will be immeasurably increased.

From all standpoints, both because of their manifestly superior qualifications and their freedom from any pre-election pledge or obligation, The Times recommends the election of John B. Beman, Frank O. Bristol, Robert L. Burns, Elizabeth Louise Clark, Frederick R. Feitshans, Lucia Macbeth and Robert A. Odell.

SMILE ALMOST MEANS WAR

Lily Lem Lee Likes Actor Boy But Hop Sing Tong Objects Strenuously With Guns

A youthful Chinese actor's love for Lily Lem Lee, Chinatown's queen of beauty, was found yesterday to be the cause of an oriental feud which threatened to develop into another tong war early yesterday morning.

Many men have died for Lily Lem Lee. She has often been the cause of an impending killing, where three armed and love-maddened Hop Sing tongmen were prevented from shooting her by the timely intervention of the Chinatown police.

Lily Lem Lee has a legal husband. He is one of the best cooks in town. She also has a sweetheart, a Hop Sing man. Two men, a husband and a sweetheart, were all right. But Lily bought a ticket one afternoon to the old Main-street theater, where the Joke Mah Ming Company is presenting Chinese plays. She fell in love with a handsome Chinese matinee idol, even as her American sisters do now and then.

Lily has many lovers in Chinatown, but her regular sweetheart does not object, for they are brother tongmen and they often shower gifts upon her. But the handsome actor was not a Hop Sing man. Nor did he fortify his love with gifts of money or pretty things.

Wang Wah Ting is Lily Lem Lee's sweetheart. He called upon the Chinese matinee idol in the dressing-room at the theater. And Wang Wah Ting scolded him for failing to give gifts to Lily. The young actor ejected Wang Wah Ting from the dressing-room. But the Hop Sing man returned, bringing with him two other Hop Sing men, and all of them carried revolvers. They were arrested while awaiting the appearance of Lily's matinee idol on the stage door. At Central Station they were charged with carrying concealed weapons and later released on bail of $100 each.

AUTO MAN BUYS FINE HOME SITE

Earle C. Anthony Plans to Erect Residence on New Ivanhoe Hills Land

The sale of a tract of six acres, involving a consideration of approximately $100,000, to Earle C. Anthony, local automobile dealer, was announced yesterday by Miss Margaret Shelby of the Shelby Investment Company. The property purchased by Mr. Anthony is located in the Ivanhoe Hills district, on Los Feliz Boulevard, east of Vermont avenue. The holdings of Mr. Anthony comprise several individually-owned properties.

Mr. Anthony's newly purchased property will be used for the house and for gardens and terraces. Mr. Anthony sold his property at the corner of Wilshire and Bessenden about a year ago to a syndicate of local and San Francisco business men, headed by A. C. Blumenthal, and this property is to be used for the erection of a modern height-limit apartment-house.

In the purchase of the new residence by Mr. Anthony all negotiations were handled by Miss Shelby.

GARBUTT IS CLEARED OF MAIL FRAUD

Charge Made as Result of Sale of Mining Stock is Dismissed at Tucson

Frank A. Garbutt, Los Angeles business man, was cleared of a Federal charge of misuse of the mails brought on February 1, last, in connection with an alleged fraud and misrepresentation in the sale of mining stock in the Schuyler Mining Company in Arizona, through dismissal of the charge in the Federal Court at Tucson yesterday, according to a telegram received by Oscar Lawler, his attorney.

The petition filed in Los Angeles Federal Court for removal of the case from Arizona was likewise dismissed.

Dismissal of the charges resulted from an investigation into the affairs of the mining company in Arizona, Mr. Lawler said.

At the time of his arraignment here, Mr. Garbutt denied having anything to do with the sale of stock in the company. His connection was to supervise the expenditure of money, he having managed loans himself, it was declared.

Mr. Garbutt at present is in Washington, D. C.

SUSPECT IS HELD ON GEM THEFT CHARGE

Virgil Brown was arrested by a police officer yesterday on charges of burglary and grand larceny in connection with the theft of $3000 in jewels from Mrs. Julia K. Simpson, widow of New York visitor, living at 2737 West First street. Burglars recently entered Mrs. Simpson's home and took the jewels from her bedroom.

FILM PERSONAGES IN COURT

Actor and Director Face New Charge After Raid on Woman's Home Early Saturday

When Gaston Glass and Louis G. Gansier, the former noted as a motion-picture actor and the latter equally well known as a director, appeared in Judge Frederickson's court yesterday afternoon in company with Mrs. Helen McCloskey and Alma Rhodes to answer to charges of vagrancy, they were greeted with a surprise.

The innovation consisted of an additional charge—disorderly conduct—and the mixed quartet were required to repeat their pleas of not guilty, given in answer to the original charge.

The second charge was preferred early yesterday, the complainant having been prepared by Deputy City Prosecutor Matherly and signed by Officer Hawes, one of the trio of officials who made the arrest early Saturday morning.

MAY DISMISS CHARGE

Chief Deputy City Prosecutor Friedlander stated that the second charge was preferred on the suggestion of two of the arresting officers and that he had not been apprised of the details of the case. He further stated that he intended to confer with the arresting officers and if their recital of events leading up to the arrest did not justify the original charge he would ask that it be dismissed and the accused be tried only on the charge of disorderly conduct.

TODAY'S BIBLE TEXT

The Wisdom in Godliness:—Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good life his works in meekness of wisdom. But if ye have bitter jealousy and faction in your heart, glory not and lie not against the truth. This wisdom is not a wisdom that cometh down from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. —James III, 13-15.

One man was precipitated to almost instant death and another sustained injuries which are expected to result in his death when the scaffolding on which they were working at the Los Angeles Railway Shops, Sixty-fourth street and South Park avenue, worked loose from its fastenings and buried them to the floor, forty feet below, yesterday afternoon.

The man killed is F. W. Faucette of 1628 Hickory street. Graham Station, a painter. He died a few minutes after he had struck the concrete floor. The injured man is Casey Brown, 35 years of age, of 345 East Fifty-third street. MOOSE VICTIM'S BODY FOUND

Bar tender Arrested After Discovery of Remains Hidden Under Drink Parlor

The body of R. Ruiz, a victim of virulent bootleg booze, was found yesterday by deputy sheriffs from its secret hiding place four feet under the floor of a bar-room at 804 North Alameda street.

After a heavy drinking bout last February, according to the police, Ruiz was taken to the bar-room and there he was killed by the bootlegger. The body was hidden under the floor of the bar-room.

Wright Act, gave the officers information by which the body was located. He is said to have been killed by the bootlegger. The body was hidden under the floor of the bar-room.

Ruiz was employed by the Southern Pacific Railroad, being engaged on Alameda street repairs, said Muldone, and occasionally came into the place run by Montoya for a drink. One night three months ago he failed to recover, and was left locked in one of the rabbit warrens at the rear of the building. Next morning he was dead.

Montoya, fearing the consequences of an investigation, offered Muldone $200 to dispose of the body. Muldone declared, and finally engaged him to dig the body out. Quicklime and formaldehyde were poured in upon the body, and the place sealed up.

ASSISTED OFFICERS

When arrested Monday morning Montoya admitted that Ruiz had been buried in his building, and assisted the officers in locating the remains.

Deputy Coroner William A. MacDonald supervised the recovery of the body and directed that it be sent to the Burton undertaking establishment.

Deputy Sheriff Catlin, Sepulveda Street, Koenigsmann, Bishop and Horton made a complete investigation of the premises in the belief that other bodies might be concealed there. They found several knives and pistols, a quantity of ammunition, quicklime and formaldehyde. Detectives Learnah, Lethouse and Romero of Lincoln Heights division assisted the deputy sheriffs.

NEW DENIAL BY MRS. PHILLIPS

Asserts Husband Lied About Her Confession

Blames Another Woman for Hammer Killing

Keeps to Herself in Prison and Weeps

BY LINTON WELLS

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, June 4.—Forty-eight hours in San Quentin prison have served only to make Clara Phillips more determined to free herself. Not that she has any intention of attempting any escape; but she asserted today that she is not going to leave anything undone, and will never rest until she has proved to the state and to the world that she is innocent of having killed Albert Meadows.

She insisted that another woman struck the blow with the hammer; with fire in her eyes she declared that Armour L. Phillips, her husband, lied when he told her that she had killed Meadows. Los Angeles county officers that she had returned to their home following Mrs. Meadows' death, and confessed that she had killed the woman as he loved and was then prepared to cook for him the finest meal he ever ate.

"I told him," she said, "that there had been a fight. I didn't know then that Albert was dead, but I told him that a woman had beaten her with a hammer."

"But you ran away and she remained," I reminded her.

"Yes," she replied, "but only after my husband insisted."

Phillips, it seems from her statements, told her there would be a scandal and that she had better go away for a time. She went, she says, not knowing Mrs. Meadows was dead. When she did learn, she was horrified and frightened.

Mrs. Phillips today looked like a heartbroken woman. Her voice, occasionally rising several tones higher than normal, then descending to a whisper; her actions, her eyes, her gestures, reflected a soul filled with despair.

She didn't in any way resemble the Clara Phillips of the Los Angeles County Jail. Gone was her look of haughty, gone was the flash in her eyes; gone was her defiant attitude. An occasional smile played around her lips, which were devoid of rouge. The smile wasn't mechanical; it wasn't forced; yet there was something unnatural about it.

Today, Clara looked several years younger than the 34 to which she admitted, according to prison records. She was immaculately dressed in a pink silk waist, below which was the dark blue, heavy prison skirt, made to order for her Saturday afternoon. Brown slippers encased her slender ankles; a pair of tan pumps to

KEEPS TO HERSELF

The "Tiger Woman" declared she had become acquainted with no one other than her room-mate since her incarceration and intended that she really doesn't care to meet or know anyone. Her room-mate is Ethel Seward, 38 years of age, serving from six months to five years on a burglary charge. According to Mrs. Phillips, she has said very little to her.

"Even in the County Jail," she reminded me, "I kept to myself."

"But do you intend to live the life of a recluse while here?" I asked. "Don't you think life will be more enjoyable if you make friends with the women who must be your companions for—well, for some time, anyway?"

"Oh, if I meet anyone here I like—yes. But how can you suggest that life in here could be made enjoyable?"

"What do you do?" I asked. "What task has been assigned you?"

"None."

"What do you want to do?"

"I don't care. I am not interested in anything except the clearing of my freedom."

Clara described her rooms as being somewhat better than her quarters in the Los Angeles County Jail.

"The walls," she said, "are something akin to saffron color and bare. The room contains two hospital beds, two dressers, two rocking chairs, a rug between the beds and a desk to be installed later."

She said she has spent some of her time making the place look homelike. Outside her barred window are creeping vines and a rose bush, "which is very pleasant."

BIDS OPENED ON NEW FIRE EQUIPMENT

Largest Single Order for Like Apparatus That Ever Was Placed, Says Scott

Bids for the placing of the largest single order for fire equipment ever placed in the world according to Fire Chief Scott, amounting to more than $500,000, were opened by the City Council yesterday with four spirited bidders in line.

The new engines and trucks, forty-seven in number, will be used to equip thirty new fire companies in Los Angeles. This equipment will be paid for from the sale of the $2,500,000 fire bonds voted last fall.

The lowest bidder on ten single-pump engines and eighteen triple-combination pump engines, offering to furnish the ten single-pump machines for $104,530 and the eighteen triple machines for $199,714 with 2 per cent off for cash on both orders.

The Stuts Company was low bidder on seven chemical and hose engines at $19,500. Seagrave was low on five city service ladder trucks at $17,155 with 2 per cent discount for cash. Stuts was again low on five city service ladder trucks at $17,155 with 2 per cent discount for cash. Stuts was again low on five city service ladder trucks at $17,155 with 2 per cent discount for cash.

The novel proposal that his mother-in-law should pay the costs of the suit and his wife's attorney fees on the ground that she was to blame for the separation and divorce was made in a money hearing before Judge Sumnerfield yesterday by Fred G. Bentley, a mechanic, who is being sued by Mrs. Ellen Bentley.

The plea did not help. "Do you play the races?" asked Mrs. Bentley's lawyer.

"Yes, but I never lost a dollar on a horse yet," Bentley declared. "That is a remarkable record," said Judge Sumnerfield. "Since you have been so successful, you will not object to paying $50 on account of attorney's fees and $15 costs. How much money have you?"

Bentley said he had $1 in the bank and $1.35 in his pocket. The judge said he could have sixty days in which to pay.

Mrs. Bentley charged cruelty. Bentley filed a cross-complaint, in which he asserted his wife's mother, Mrs. Margaret Huseman, dominated his wife and was the cause of the trouble.

SMILE ALMOST MEANS WAR

Births of Chinatown. She could not be found yesterday. But those who know her reflected back upon Lily's romantic past and they remembered this:

Back in 1914 two rival tongmen angling for her love started a war in San Francisco's Chinatown which resulted in many deaths. Then she came to Los Angeles.

In 1911 two Bing Kong tongmen were killed in Nigger Alley. Other killings in various coast cities followed and after a year of warfare a truce was signed by the rival tongmen. Lily Lem Lee at that time wanted new clothes. A Bing Kong tongmen bought them for her and she became indebted to him. A Hop Sing tongmen sought her love but according to custom Lily was the sweetheart of the Bing Kong tongmen.

The Hop Sing man paid off Lily's debt to the Bing Kong man, and Lily became the Hop Sing man's sweetheart. But the Bing Kong man continued to hang around and one night was found dead in an alley.

women were arrested by Officers Nelson, Freeman and Hawes early Saturday morning at the home of Mrs. McCloskey, 6527 Fountain avenue. They were charged with vagrancy and lewdness and were kept in the City Jail until court convened Saturday morning.

Pleas of not guilty were entered by their attorneys and bail of $100 each was set for their appearance yesterday afternoon.

Both Glass and Gansler denied that their actions at Mrs. McCloskey's home warranted the arrest, and the two women also denied any improper conduct.

Glass and Gansler are at present under contract by the E. F. Shubert Company, the former having been starred previously in Comopolitan Productions and is said to have once been a protégé of Sarah Bernhardt. Gansler has been a director for years and is well-known in motion picture circles.

Mrs. McCloskey recently filed a divorce action against her husband, said to be a prominent New York business man. Miss Rhodes has played minor parts in several pictures.

Electric Club Hears Expert on Advertising

"Successful Merchandising" was the subject discussed yesterday by Harry S. Carroll, advertising and sales manager of a local department store, in an address before members of the Electric Club at the Alexandria.

He explained the various forms of advertising and disclosed the results of different kinds of advertisements. He showed by statistics that window displays have a huge drawing power but that it takes the newspaper to bring the housekeeper to the salesman. By his analysis of the articles displayed in the daily paper she is attracted by the price and is persuaded to make a purchase.

While it is agreed that the store window draws many persons, Mr. Carroll stated that by a recent tabulation in a local merchandise store it was shown that 50 per cent of the buyers come as the result of the street exhibition and advertising.

Besides the talk by Mr. Carroll, an entertaining three-act playlet was presented by the "Edison Stock Company - Municipally Owned" depicting the introduction of electric appliances in the modern home. The cast included H. B. Sherman, Jr., R. R. Lockhart, L. E. Darrow, C. H. Paulin, A. M. Lockridge, J. C. Loomer, Carl M. Helms, K. E. Van Kuren, vice-chairman of the California Electrical Co-operative Campaign, presided at the meeting.

The Board of Supervisors made the appointment on the recommendation of Supervisor Wright. Mr. Lindley is a member of the Prohibition party. The other two members of the commission are a Republican and a Democrat.

AIR WAVES CUR AT KHJ VARIETY

Band and Orchestra Music Are Carried at Noon

Flute Solos and Old Songs Feature Matinee

Readings and Syncopated Enliven Night

BY BEN A. MARKSON

Yesterday was a busy day for the air waves employed by KHJ. The four programs were of such variety that the etheric undulations scarcely had time to adjust themselves to the different forces of musical broadcast. However, well-trained air wave is school to take care of such conditions.

The atmospheric curia carried band and orchestra music at noon, flute solos and songs at the matinee, piano solos and readings at the evening, and syncopated music at night.

Flournoy's Californians distributed the lush dance music to the dance at intervals to permit Marian Coutts, mezzo-soprano, to sing popular songs in her evening program. Her numbers included "Just a Little Blue," "Barney Rhythm" and "Kalia."

The minor-keyed June mood was down through the studio window, was inspired to do the dance of the seven veils. The dance of the seven veils was the Flournoy's Californians' unadorned their particular kind of melody. "Steal a Little Kiss While Waiting," "Way Down Yonder in the Great Big Woods," "I Cried for You," and "A Silver Canoe" were a few of the selections. The telephone kept up an obligate of requests through the program.

CADETS APPLAUDED

Ensemble offerings, band and orchestra, by sturdy young fellows from Harvard Military School, were presented at noon. W. D. McCloskey is director of the two Harvard Military School musical societies. The band favored with numbers, including "Harvard Special," composed by Mr. McCloskey; "Fraserburgh" by Trevor, and "Officer of the Guard" by Jewell. Orchestra selections were "Little Boy Blue," by Berens, and "The Orientale."

Excellent instrumental solos were given by the military students. Robert Gooden, Jr., cornetist, played "The Blue Bird" by Robert Gooden, Jr., cornetist, and "The Blue Bird" by Robert Gooden, Jr., cornetist, and "The Blue Bird" by Robert Gooden, Jr., cornetist.

SUICIDE NOTE IS FOUND ON BEACH

Nina Robinson Being Sought
by Authorities.

Letter Tells of Betrayal and Disappointment

Troubles Laid to Man Named
Father of Child

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
SAN DIEGO, June 4.—Search was made today without success for the body of a woman believed to be Nina E. Robinson, following the finding of a suicide note signed with that name and pinned to a handbag on the shore at La Jolla yesterday.

A story of disappointed love, betrayal and loss through court action of her daughter, is revealed in the note, which names a man from Red Bluff as the cause of her troubles. According to word received from Red Bluff this morning, Nina Robinson held the District Attorney and county officials at bay when she barricaded herself in the courthouse and opened fire on them two years ago, after the District Attorney had refused to prosecute the man whom she named as the father of her daughter.

The note covered both sides of three large sheets of brown paper and was evidently written by a woman of education and refinement. Extracts from the farewell note follow:

"I have nothing to live for. The people of this world have given me a hard deal for the past twenty years. The man in the case is and has been soot free because he has money. I filed the breach of promise case in hopes of getting a name for the child, but only asked $10-000, so that I could be in a position to care for her.

"As God is my witness, he forced me to live with him by threats.
The attorney advised me that had better not swear to that, as he thought I would win the case better by saying, 'God alone knows how much we both have suffered.'

"May my darling little girl forgive me for this. I do not blame her for anything, God alone knows
how much we both have suffered.
Her father has a home and money
—I'll never forgive him. I suppose I will go to hell, but I will meet him there.

"He said the reason he did not keep his promise to marry me was because he was a divorced Catholic.

"Why should the innocent child have to suffer? An God is my witness, I did everything in my power for her welfare and happiness, though I was continually kicked down by everyone, including my own people.

"God forgive me for this last act. I did as well as anyone in the world could have done under the circumstances.

(Signed)
—NINA E. ROBINSON
—MRS. WALTON.

According to Pete Bolesere, of a local detective agency, the girl is known on the screen under the name of June Love, and has taken part in various comedies. Her true name is June Love, is said to be about 25 years of age, and at one time employed as a domestic in a home here.

She is described as being a middle-aged woman, five feet eight inches tall and of slender build, weighing about 125 pounds.

THE TALE OF TWO FRIENDS

Or How Gustav Got Antonio Out of Cell in Time to Catch His Ship About to Sail

When the lumber schooner Vaquero slipped out of the harbor yesterday noon with Antonio Govee at his accustomed place, the old adage concerning the strength of friendships formed at sea was further supported, for his presence on the ship was entirely due to the efforts of an old friend and shipmate, Gustav Ulrich.

For many years Antonio and Gustav had been shipmates before the events across that resulted in their separation. When the tanker with Gustav pulled into Los Angeles Harbor last week, Gustav's first act was to search out his friend, that they might renew the old friendship and take over the voyages made together.

But upon inquiry, Gustav found that Antonio was in jail. Following the ancient custom of sailors the world over, Antonio had stocked up with whisky, both externally and internally, immediately after setting foot on shore, which resulted in his falling afoul of the law.

FIND TRACE OF FRIEND
The police officers told Gustav that Antonio had been sentenced to thirty days on being unable to pay his fine of $100, and Gustav realized that unless the fine was paid soon Antonio would miss his ship, which sailed yesterday, and be reported as a deserter.

The sum of $100 is not easily raised by a sailor, but by drawing his pay as far in advance as possible, borrowing from his friends and then pawning some of his possessions, Gustav finally got the money together Saturday night, and rushed over to the Los Angeles Harbor police station.

There he was met by Antonio, who had been sent to the Central Station to serve his term, so Gustav pawed his coat and bought a ticket in the city. At the Central

Laguna Beach Man Seeks Identity of Occupant of
"Covered Wagon" Teepee

Suspect Broken Horn, squaw of the tapes of the chief of the Arapaho Indians, now living in Cala-hanga Canyon for the benefit of Sid Grauman's showing of "The Covered Wagon," and the tribal treasury.

Mr. Thurston has written a letter to Sid Grauman stating that his sister was stolen from the home of her parents in Utah more than fifty years ago and that she was later found by him in a teepee at Laguna Beach.

One of the white youngsters was later rescued by the whites and returned years later in an effort to induce Susie to renounce the tribe which had adopted her. But Susie remained and entered the lodge of Chief Broken Horn as squaw. All of which the chief said in the Klax sign language, which Mr.
Beall professes to understand.

"So, while Grauman endeavors to bridge the gap of years, Thurston and his mother wait longingly at Laguna Beach for the word which shall make for them a beacon of rejoicing or cast an additional shadow over the fate of the little one, who went away so many years ago as the captive of the red marauders," Mr. Beall concludes.

WIFE AVERS HER FEAR OF KLAN

She Asserts Mate Held
Ku Klux as Whip to Make
Her Obey; Asks Divorce

One of the apparent reasons for so many married men seeking to join the Ku Klux Klan was revealed yesterday when Mrs. Ella Warnke of Del Mar filed suit for divorce in Superior Court against Richard A. Warnke.

It's to make wifely behave.
None of the various exposures of the Klan ritual have shaken this point, but it's a fact, according to Mrs. Warnke—or at least her husband has succeeded in making her think so—that the Grand Goblin will kill the hokets together with the flaming cross and proceed to tar and feather and drive out of town any spouse who proceeds to disregard the obey portion of the marriage obligation.

"My husband belongs to the Ku Klux Klan," said Mrs. Warnke in her complaint, "and threatens to have that organization tar and feather me and drive me out of town if I don't do as he says. For long periods he would not speak to me except to curse me."

Warnke also offered on one occasion to break every bone in his wife's body, the complaint avers.
They were married in 1907 and separated March 1, last. They have four children. Besides a divorce, Mrs. Warnke wants her husband removed from sickling the K.K.K. on her.

Why Brides Wear Orange Blossoms —

A princely orange tree once grew in a famous Spanish garden.
The garden's daughter sold a branch of it for money for her dowry. At her wedding, out of gratitude to the plant that had brought about her happiness, she wore a spray of the blossoms in her hair. The American girl's dowry is her own loveliness and the ability to run her home smoothly.

EVERYONE "SURE TO WIN" TODAY

Candidates Optimistic on Eve of Election

Power Bond Backers Appear Privately Gloomy

Mayor Urges Good Citizens to Get Out and Vote

not much chance of their $25,000,000 indefinite, vague power bond issue carrying. In spite of the many thousands of dollars of public money spent by the commission, under the direction of Special Counsel W. B. Mathews for jazz bands, posters, banners, postcards, letters and paid advertising, even the proponents of the issue admitted that they were surprised at the opposition which their bond issue had aroused from such organizations as the Chamber of Commerce, which judged the proposition solely on its merits and with no feeling of animosity toward the power bureau and its enterprises. For publication the power bureau declared itself certain to win.

SCHOOL BOARD FIGHT

The Board of Education contest has taken first place in interest in the battle of the candidates for office, as the Mayorality contest was settled at the primaries by the re-election of Mayor Cramer. In past years the Board of Education contest was considered a sideshow, but this year a small group of teacher-politicians and certain radicals from without have attempted to secure control of the schools, put forward with a ticket headed by G. Bromley Oxnam, radical, sympathizer with and friend of Upton Sinclair, the Citizens' School Committee, the Committee of Ten Thousand and other organizations pledged to keep the Los Angeles schools 100 per cent American, have worked hard for the defeat of Oxnam and his ticket and for the election of John B. Beman, Frank O. Bristol, Robert L. Burns, Elizabeth Louise Clark, Frederick R. Feitshans, Lucia MacBeth and Robert A. Odell (incumbent). The Board of Education contest is expected to bring out a larger vote.

The Chamber of Commerce and thirteen allied civic and business organizations, which have put forward a ticket of fifteen candidates for the Board of Freshwater, are confident of victory for the fifteen representative, efficient and able men and women on the ticket. These are Charles A. Baskerville, Ida I. Bellows, Percy H. Booth, W. B. Byrnes, E. P. Clark, Robert M. Clarke, John H. Cramer, D. H. Howell, Henry W. Keller, William Mead, Orra E. Monnette, Watt L. Moreland, Nathan Newby, Dora A. Stearns, and Joseph H. Tolhurst.

In addition there are on the ballot eight propositions, which are, together with the Times' recommendations as follows: No. 1, $1,500,000 bond issue for a new City Hall and the remaining $2,500,000 to be paid for the site of the building (Vote "Yes"); No. 2, bond issue of $500,000 for the purchase of the Flower-street frontage to protect the new $2,500,000 library on Normal Hill (Vote "Yes"); No. 3, $1,500,000 bond issue for revenue-producing bonds for additional docks, wharves, dredging terminals and other facilities at Los Angeles Harbor (Vote "Yes"); No. 4, $2,500,000 bond issue for the city's one-fifth share of the cost of six new viaducts over the Los Angeles River and the railroad tracks (Vote "Yes"); No. 5, $1,500,000 bond issue, for additional playgrounds and recreation centers (Vote "Yes"); No. 6, $1,500,000 bond issue for a new City Hall (Vote "Yes"); No. 7, $1,500,000 bond issue for a new City Hall (Vote "Yes"); No. 8, $1,500,000 bond issue for a new City Hall (Vote "Yes").

Late endorsements of candidates announced yesterday included that of the Arroyo Seco Federation, which recommended the election to the Council of Messrs. Beman, Bristol, Burns, Clark, Cramer, D. H. Howell, Henry W. Keller, William Mead, Orra E. Monnette, Watt L. Moreland, Nathan Newby, Dora A. Stearns, and Joseph H. Tolhurst.

The Sixty-fourth Assembly Republican Club has endorsed the following candidates: City Council, Beman, Bristol, Burns, Clark, Cramer, D. H. Howell, Henry W. Keller, William Mead, Orra E. Monnette, Watt L. Moreland, Nathan Newby, Dora A. Stearns, and Joseph H. Tolhurst.

The Church of the People is for Oxnam, according to its pastor, and the Ministerial Union, as represented by Dr. Bob Shuler, president, and Dr. G. A. Briggs, past president, is against him. Altogether, the church vote is likely to play a considerable part in the school board fight.

VICTORY FOR PLAYGROUND BONDS SEEN

Proposition No. 5 Has No Opposition and Backing is Almost City-Wide

The passage of the proposed playground bond issue (Proposition No. 5) at today's election was predicted yesterday by Charles E. Lamb, secretary of the Playground Commission and chairman of the speakers' bureau in the campaign for better recreational facilities. "With absolutely no opposition and the backing of scores of civic organizations, the proposed playground bond issue should poll a more successful vote than any other proposition submitted," said Secretary Lamb. "The endorsements of Chief of Police Oakes, Sheriff Tranger, City Prosecutor McConell, Police Court Defender Pope, the City Mothers and Lieut. McClain, in command of the police juvenile bureau, expressing their belief that organized playgrounds are the greatest aid in the prevention of crime, should carry considerable weight with the voters."

"The educational value of playgrounds as outlined by Susan Dorsey, Superintendent of Schools, and supported by the Board of Education, numerous Parent-Teacher associations and city school-teachers, is an indisputable argument in behalf of the measure."

"The health value of playgrounds as pointed out by Dr. L. B. Powers, city health commissioner, and other authorities, cannot be too strongly emphasized. These arguments, coupled with the endorsement of G. Gordon Whitman, director of city planning, who urges immediate action because of economic necessity, should cause every voter to vote 'Yes' to Proposition No. 5 on today's ballot."

LAWSCASH AT HEARING OVER ELDER

Statutes and Scriptures Said to Tangle in Church Controversy

While the specter of a child hovered in the background, the law of Scripture and the law of the State of California "tangled" in Judge Hardy's courtroom yesterday afternoon in a hearing on a petition for injunction suit brought by an elder and certain trustees against a faction of the congregation of the Church of Christ, one of the churches of the city.

The suit was brought by Elder M. S. Rucker and the trustees, against A. E. Harper and a score of other members of the church, to prevent the defendants from holding services in the church building. Mr. Rucker is seeking reinstatement.

Back of the suit, it is said, is the most question among authorities of the church as to whether one who is without children can be an elder in the congregation. The defendants in the suit deny that this question is at issue in the removal of Mr. Rucker as elder.

The defendants say that Rucker was removed because he sought to oust several members of the church for asserting "rebellion." The removal of the eleven followed the charges by the eleven against Rucker, it was said, was that of being without children. These charges were made by a group of members of the congregation, Elder Rucker spent the greater part of the day relating incidents leading up to the split in the church. The matter of fatherhood was not touched upon during the hearing. The case is scheduled to be heard before the hearing is over.

REHEARSE PLAY TO FOLLOW "BAD MAN"

"The Man of Action," starring Ivan Miller, will follow the current run of Holbrook Blinn in "The Bad Man" at the Majestic Theater, Thomas Wilkes, producer, announced yesterday.

This is a new play and will be given its world premiere at the Majestic. The exact nature of the plot has not been given out, but it is described as a play that fully lives up to its title. Rehearsals have already begun. The opening date of the production has not been announced.

ORPHANS ARE GUESTS AT ICE-CREAM PARTY

NINE COMPANIES SEND DELICACY FOR INMATES OF INSTITUTIONS

Orphans of the city had another ice cream party Sunday at the expense of various ice cream manufacturers—an experiment made for the first time. The children were taken to the city hall where they were served by the British motorship Lookatrine from the north on Saturday. The big motorship will load 7000 boxes of ice cream for the city hall. The Lookatrine is a motorship of the British Line and is owned by the British Line. The ship is a motorship of the British Line and is owned by the British Line.

ALHAMBRA OFFERS ALL-LAUGH BILL

Anyone going to the Alhambra Theater this week will have to come prepared to spend two hours laughing. The program is a double feature bill consisting of Thomas H. Ince's farce comedy, "Bell Boy Thirteen," in which Douglas MacLean plays the life of a bell boy in a not all a bed of roses.

An additional picture on the program is Jack White's Mermaid comedy, "Hold Tight," a fast and furious comedy that pulls the spectator along at a sixty-five-mile-an-hour clip.

LONG WED; Local Police ASKS TO BE SEPARATED

Mrs. Catherine Lane Sues for Divorce From Local Capitalist

Rollin B. Lane was made defendant in a suit for divorce brought yesterday by Mrs. Catherine A. Lane after twenty-seven years of married life. The plaintiff named Virginia Hutcheson, also known as Virginia Stein, Miss Lane asks for a restraining order to prevent her husband from disposing of their home or other property and seeks monthly allowances of $750. Hearing on the plea will be held next Monday before Judge Crail.

Warner's Begin Production of 'Gold Diggers'

With Hope Hampton in the role of the leading chorus girl, Warner Brothers yesterday began the screen production of "The Gold Diggers," David Belasco's stage success. Mr. Belasco is now en route to Los Angeles from New York City and will personally supervise the production.

ILLNESS KEEPS HER FROM TAKING ROLE

If Shirley Mason would only recover from her recent operation at the Good Samaritan Hospital in time, Oscar Arcule could have three queens all of the same family in his first Metro production, "To Whom It May Concern."

Viola Dana is the star, her sister Edna Flugrath has been cast for an important part, and there is a role in the play which would ideally suit the other sister of the pair, Shirley Mason. The latter's contract with William Fox is expiring and it is possible she may head her own company, after a long rest from her present illness.

Local Police Band Scoring High on Trip

The police band got a good reception in St. Louis, according to a telegram received yesterday by Deputy Chief Hill from Chief Oakes, who is accompanying the band on its trip to Buffalo. The telegram read:

"Arrived in St. Louis on time. Were met at the station by Commissioner P. H. Brockman and Richard Moore, Chief of Police of St. Louis. The band was given a most cordial reception and mounted guard."

"Were guests of Chief O'Brien for breakfast, after which we marched to the various newspaper offices, where the band gave concerts, then to City Hall, where photographs were taken."

"The most royal welcome possible given by the department and citizens of St. Louis. Band received a most cordial reception. All members of party feeling fine. Regards to entire department."

"The band is coming via rail from St. Louis, as far north as Seattle, as far east as Denver and as far south as Mexico, where the well-known hairless wonder grows. Sherwood Hall, show secretary, and P. W. Higgins, chairman of the bench show committee, have completed arrangements for the exhibition, at which the largest number of premiums cups and trophies ever offered on the Pacific Coast will be awarded. One entries number 48 and the breeds will be divided into two groups, one to be benched and the other to be judged. The show will be under the auspices of the Los Angeles Kennel Club and will be in the horse show arena at the Ambassador Hotel, with its entrance on Eighth street."

"Motion picture folk, many of whom own the classic dogs in Southern California, are taking an intense interest in the Ambassador show and will bench their dogs in the contest for canine honors. Because of the simplified rules, it is expected the innovations introduced at the coming exhibition will prove popular for future displays in the Southland."

The judges for the event this year will include Alva Rosenberg of New York, Thomas J. Hight of Los Angeles, John P. Brown of La Jolla, Kyle Orsini of Pasadena and J. P. Nets of Los Angeles.

In Italy, France and Germany, the principles have never been married before. Widows, however, respect an old custom by marrying on Saturdays.

COUNTY HOLDS CROP

Highest Value in Nation; Nine States Oranges Rule as Production Leader

Despite the 1922 frost that caused $9,000,000 loss to the citrus growers, Los Angeles county again led all counties of the United States in value of farm products, and made a record of $12,102,319, according to figures compiled by the agricultural department of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and published in its current number of Southern California Business.

The total for 1922 was $9,949,000, exceeding the total individual farm production of New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Delaware, Wyoming, New Mexico and Utah. The increase was made despite the withdrawal of several thousand acres of farm lands from production. They went into real estate subdivisions.

Oranges, though they shouldered most of the $9,000,000 loss from frost, led the production list by several hundred per cent, with a total value of $17,141,442; lemons were second with $5,748,000; walnuts third with $3,412,000 and alfalfa a close fourth with $2,348,000.

Grapes showed a large gain over the preceding year. There was an increase of nearly 1000 acres in vineyard area, and a jump in production from $1,843,139 in 1922 to $1,735,500. The 1923 production was 28,325 tons.

Alfalfa led the field crops with a production of 1,419,000 tons. Strawberries led the truck crops, producing 735,731 crates, valued at $2,310,790.

The county had fourteen crops which produced more than a million dollars each. Crops in the million-dollar class other than those named were tomatoes, $1,650,000; lettuce, $1,650,000; celery, $1,384,800; sugar beets, $1,332,984; small grain hay, $1,174,000; potatoes, $1,133,500; peaches, $1,131,300; and cabbage, $1,120,000.

BEANS GAIN

Though the bean acreage was the same in 1922 and 1923, 24,000 acres, there was a gain in value of $46,400. The strawberry area took a drop of 281 acres, but the crop value increased to $1,332,984. Tomatoes made a gain of more than $500,000. The walnut crop was 8754 tons, an increase of 2429 tons and a gain in value of $582,800. There was a material gain in peaches, both in acreage and in value.

Almonds, though a comparatively small crop, gained acreage from 753 to 1062 and in value from $24,320 to $44,400.

CROP SUMMARY

Following are the figures for the 1923 crop, which do not include garden production nor the consumption of the Los Angeles county population, which is 1,419,000 tons.

BARBED WIRE IS TUT SUCCESSOR

New Style Introduced by Eastern Speaker

Addresses Local Clothiers on Convention

Asserts Men's Clothing Sold to Please Women

As a pace setter for styles, Mrs. Tut-Ankh-Amen was pushed aside momentarily last night by the woman with the barbed-wire dress, at a meeting of the Retail Clothiers Association of Southern California.

The woman with the barbed-wire dress was introduced to local clothiers by Fred Voland of Topoka, Kan., president of the National Association of Retail Clothiers, who addressed the local men on the convention of the California Association in Los Angeles next July 23 to 25.

"When I say that the American woman is one of the greatest factors in our problem of selling men's clothes, I do not mean the woman with the barbed-wire dress," said Mr. Voland. "I mean the woman who doesn't obscure the vision, but it protects the property just the same."

SELLING THE WIFE

"Keep an eye on the American woman and American youth in the selling of clothing," the national president warned the local clothiers. "It is the American youth, let me tell you, that the young men in American colleges and the youth in the high schools of the United States are the ones who set the styles in American men's clothing. I will add, too, that their leadership in this respect is unerring."

Reverting to the American woman as a factor in the purchase of men's clothing, Mr. Voland said: "When that great God-given Declaration of Independence was written enters a clothing store at

for Graduation

Twenty million proud users approve this gift

Eversharp and Wahl Pen will serve the graduate for life—will meet his every writing need, business and social.

The very weight of numbers suggests Eversharp. Only America's finest pencil could have twenty million users. And such popularity argues well for its reception as a graduation gift. Remember, Eversharp can't be copied. The rifled tip and the lead index are Eversharp features. One assures a firm lead free from slip or wobble; the other tells always the length of lead in the barrel. And Eversharp perfect balance suits the hand to a T.

Matching the beauty and accuracy of Eversharp is Wahl Pen—the greatest modern step forward in pen construction. It holds more ink, because the barrel is all metal. It cannot crack or break. The screw threads will not wear out.

Give both, matched in gold and silver. Buy them in the velvet-lined gift box. Eversharp, $1 to $10—Wahl Pen, $4 to $10. Solid gold at higher prices. Look for the name on each.

DESTROY FLOOD OF LIQUOR

Officers Locate 2000 Gallons of Sake in Noodle Parlor and Arrest Inmates

Following up the sake trail over which, the police say, a veritable river of Japanese moonshine liquor flowed into Los Angeles, Officers Nelson, Hines and Freeman of the Hollywood division, and Officers Schurft, Lofie and Barry of the metropolitan squad, last night located and destroyed 2000 gallons of contraband liquor in a house at 523 East First street.

Mrs. T. Kamada and K. Kono were taken into custody by the officers and charged with possession and transportation of liquor under the Wright Act. Both were taken to the Central Station.

The sake, which is the Japanese name for the alcoholic beverage made of rice, was found by the officers after several walls and the floor in a store and a small house in the rear of the structure were torn up with picks and axes.

The liquor was kept in a deep pit, ten feet square, it came to light only through a heavy floor was lifted from the foundation. Most of the five-gallon demijohns in which the sake was stored were broken and the pit was filled with the debris.

The rest was taken to the Central Station and booked for evidence.

According to the police the East First street place, to all appearances a regulation noodle parlor, was in reality the headquarters for the supply of illicit liquor in the Japanese sections of the city.

Last night's arrests were a sequel to a raid made by Sgt. Nelson and Officers Hawes and "One of my neighbors came to try the Tanlac and she had taken it with results, so I started on it away. Almost from the first I began to get back my appetite and I was able to eat today I enjoy myself and have gained back all my weight. My appetite is well and I always feel as pleasant as a child. Tanlac is grand."
